 - i. The MRUSA Pageant reserves the right to sell these items at various events and/or via online auction throughout the week, potentially not all at one event (ex: not all live items may be a part of the IFR Gala, some may be sold elsewhere)
 - ii. The basket/packaged item is recommended to have a theme (such as your state, hometown, or rodeo). You will likely be asked to briefly describe the contents of the basket at the MRUSA Pageant event where it is presented. These can be sponsored items! Use your creativity and your resources from local sponsors, artists, designers, and friends.
 - iii. Please provide a typed list of all items within your basket and the approximate total value. You will turn in this list at orientation before the pageant begins.

4. Contestant Social

- a. We are bringing a little old fashion glamor to the 2021 Miss Rodeo USA Pageant! You're invited to an exclusive tea party celebrating the 2021 MRUSA Contestants. This event is designed to allow each contestant to get to know one another, interact with the judges and pageant staff, and enjoy a few fun activities. It is closed to the public and will be a fun, relaxed event.
- b. Contestants will be required to bring two items to the Contestant Social Tea Party:
 - i. Teacup:
 1. We ask that you bring with you a teacup to join in the tea party festivities. This can be a cup of sentimental value – perhaps a piece from a china set within your family (that you are willing to travel with). Or it can be something that you found a connection with at a thrift store. You are also welcome to bring a teacup you have decorated yourself. Be prepared to describe your teacup and why you brought that item with you.
 - ii. Decorated Hat:
 1. What is a tea party without fancy hats? Join in the fun by bringing a decorated hat to match your teacup. The hat can be any color and any style (big and floppy, cowboy, Derby style) – we welcome all forms of creativity. We want this to be fun and show off your personalities!
- c. There will be an award for best teacup/hat presentation!
 - i. This is a separate competition and the award will NOT affect the contestant's overall scores toward the Miss Rodeo USA competition.
- d. NOTE: The contestant social has replaced a previous pageant event in years' past that incorporated a gift exchange. That will NOT be a feature of this event and we ask that you DO NOT bring gifts of any kind.

5. Commentary Cards

- a. You will need to provide commentary cards for some of your outfits. These should be brief, fun, and entertaining. This is a great opportunity to showcase your personality. They will be read while you are modeling, so consider the time you would need to model the outfit appropriately. These should never exceed one minute. Please use 3x5 cards, written clearly with dark ink or typed. Each card should have your name, title and spot to add your contestant number once given.
- b. Outfits that you need commentary cards for, to be turned in at orientation:
 - i. Platform Speech outfit
 - ii. Contestant Showcase: Western Fashion Forward outfit
 - iii. Contestant Showcase: Outfit of choice
 - iv. State shirt outfit
 - v. State Speech outfit
- c. Please pack additional index cards to write commentary cards for sponsored outfits that you may receive at the pageant.

6. Gratuities/Tip money

- a. All of your meals are provided during pageant week. However, when we visit a local restaurant, we ask that you bring several one dollar bills to offer as a gratuity for the wait staff, as they are not getting paid extra to provide service and they look forward to our group every year.

7. Handy Items to Pack

- a. Items to accompany sponsored clothing, such as under tanks/shirts (white and black), tights or leggings, extra accessories (jewelry/belts), etc.
- b. Alarm clock (backup to the one in the hotel)
- c. Small sewing kit for emergencies
- d. Clothing rack and extra hangers to stay organized in shared hotel room
- e. Blank index cards for additional commentary cards
- f. Additional Dietary Needs: If you require any special dietary needs such as gluten-free, sugar limitations, etc we will do our best to accommodate. However, please pack snacks and small meals to bring to the pageant (microwave and fridge available in contestant's hotel rooms).
- g. Medicine: It is not uncommon for contestants to get sick during the week, primarily due to being tired. It is wise to pack cough medicine, anti-nausea medicine, and/or any other common medicine you could need.
- h. NOTE: In previous years we have held a scrapbook competition within the Miss Rodeo USA Pageant. This is no longer a feature of our event. Please do NOT bring a scrapbook with you as they will not be allowed to be displayed throughout the week.

8. Event Clothing (Tentative outline – subject to change)

- I. TUESDAY - Registration/Orientation/Interview #1/Lunch/Written Exam
 - a. One outfit – no time for outfit change
 - b. Recommendations: Jean/pant or skirt outfit; may be accessorized with jacket or vest. This is your first impression outfit – from orientation to first interview – make it a memorable one! You likely will be traveling in it (in and out of the van) for lunch.

- II. TUESDAY - Contestant Social
 - a. Recommendations: A sponsored t-shirt will be provided for you and the bottoms are your choice. You will be wearing your decorated hat (reference information under Contestant Social on page 6). Crowns and banners will not be required for the evening.

- III. WEDNESDAY – Interview #2
 - a. Recommendations: jeans/pants/skirts/dress with blouse/jacket/vest. Clothing that reflects a professional nature, such as jackets, are often worn. This is one of only two interviews with the opportunity to change before and after if you have an outfit designated specifically for interview purposes.

- IV. WEDNESDAY – Lunch/Horsemanship
 - a. One outfit – no time for outfit change
 - b. Requirements: Jean outfit; no chaps, vests or fringe permitted. Contestants will remain in this outfit for the interview that follows the horsemanship competition. Remember, you will likely mount and dismount in the arena, be sure the fit of your jeans allow for this!

- V. WEDNESDAY - Platform speeches
 - a. Requirements: Formal rodeo queen dress
 - b. Recommendations: Dress can be made of any material, leather is not a requirement. Professional style dresses, such as those with jackets, are often worn at this event but not a requirement.
 - c. NOTE: Commentary card needed

- VI. THURSDAY – Interview #3
 - a. Recommendations: jeans/pants/skirts/dress with blouse/jacket/vest. Clothing that reflects a professional nature, such as jackets, are often worn. This is one of only two interviews with the opportunity to change before and after if you have an outfit designated specifically for interview purposes.

- VII. THURSDAY – Contestant Showcase Luncheon (note: we have combined previous years' events of the fashion show and the media interviews into this one event)
 - a. Two outfits (plus sponsored outfits provided during pageant week)
 - i. Western Fashion Forward Outfit -
Recommendations/Requirements: The goal of this particular outfit is to highlight today's western fashion choices. Your outfit may be off the rack, custom made or a combination of the two. Creativity is highly encouraged! This outfit should represent your fashion forward thought and how you portray it on stage.
 - 1. NOTE: Commentary card needed

- ii. Outfit of choice – This can be any outfit you want to wear again or haven't had a chance to wear within the pageant – something that makes you feel good and looks good on stage! This can be a pant outfit, something vintage, another fashion forward, a sponsor collaborated outfit, formal rodeo queen dress, etc.
 1. Due to frequent time constraints of modeling showcases that often feature sponsored outfits that must be presented first, there are no guarantees that this outfit will be worn on stage. However, we will do our best to incorporate it at this event or another throughout the week.
 2. NOTE: Commentary card needed

VIII. THURSDAY - Gold Buckle Gala

- a. Requirements: Formal rodeo queen dress
- b. Recommendations: Dress can be made of any material, leather is not a requirement. Can be a dress already worn for platform speeches or state speeches – this is common! If an option, this is a great place to wear a flashy, attention-getting formal dress.

IX. FRIDAY - Interview #4/Ladies Luncheon

- a. One outfit – STATE SHIRT
- b. Requirements: We ask that you design a shirt based on your hometown, state, or current title. The guidelines for this are:
 - i. Shirt must be white, long-sleeve, cloth (not leather)
 - ii. Shirt should be mostly created by you – please do not send to a designer and have them completely design and create your shirt. Many contestants use fabric paint and stones. Some of the very best shirts over the years were created and crafted without the help of expensive designers.
- c. NOTE: Commentary card needed

X. FRIDAY – Reception for MRUSA 2020/IFR- Perf #1

- a. Recommendations: Jean/pant outfit with blouse/jacket/vest. If you would like to re-wear your State Shirt outfit for a bit more exposure, we encourage it (but it is not required)!

XI. SATURDAY - State speeches

- a. Requirements: Formal rodeo queen dress
- b. Recommendations: Dress can be made of any material, leather is not a requirement.
- c. NOTE: Commentary card needed

XII. SATURDAY - IFR – Perf #2/Dinner/Perf #3

- a. One outfit (or two) – likely time to change between Perf #2 and Perf #3. You may change or remain in the same outfit if you'd like
- b. Recommendations: Jean/pant outfit with blouse/jacket/vest.

- XIII. SUNDAY - Move out/OG&E Kids Day/Coronation/Awards
- a. One outfit – no time for outfit change. You will wear the same outfit in the morning as you will for crowning in the afternoon and the Awards ceremony to follow.
 - b. Recommendations: Jean/pant outfit with blouse/jacket/vest. As always, you may re-wear anything from earlier in the week. Remember, this is what you will be wearing in your first pictures as Miss Rodeo USA if you are crowned in the arena, pick something you really like!
- XIV. GENERAL/ADDITIONAL INFORMATION REGARDING CLOTHING:
- a. We have provided a TENTATIVE schedule outline for you. It gives a brief description of what you should plan to bring as your competition wardrobe. This is not a competition where the contestant with the most expensive wardrobe wins. If the schedule says jeans: wear jeans! You may always accessorize with a vest or jacket – that is your choice. It is perfectly fine to repeat all or part of an outfit.
 - b. There are three events considered “formal attire” – where dresses are requested (state speech, platform speech and Gold Buckle Gala). You may bring more such as for Contestant Showcase “outfit of choice”, but they aren’t required. You may mix and match your wardrobe and can certainly wear the same dress or outfit twice.
 - c. Please bring a couple of casual/fitness outfits for use during the week, such as shorts, running pants and t-shirts.

- Fan Favorite State Shirt Award

 - Award will be given for the audience's Fan Favorite State Shirt. This is a separate competition and the award will NOT affect the contestant's overall scores toward the Miss Rodeo USA competition.

- Hotel Information
 - Our host hotel is the Hilton Garden Inn Edmond/Oklahoma City North in Edmond, OK.
 - Hilton Garden Inn Edmond/Oklahoma City North
2833 Conference Drive
Edmond, OK 73034
405-285-0900
 - We will reserve every contestant a room arriving Tuesday, January 12th and checking out Sunday, January 17th. As a contestant, do not reserve your own room for those nights. If you plan to arrive early or stay late, please call the hotel and reserve those nights separately. You may also find that the Hilton Garden Inn is full for nights such as Monday, January 11th – if so, we encourage you to find one of the many neighboring hotels with great rates (such as those listed below).
 - Each contestant will have a roommate and will share a “double queen” room. Contestants will split the cost of the room. Hotel cost listed above in the “APPLICATION CHECKLIST: Additional Details, #6”
 - When you arrive at the Hilton Garden Inn the day the pageant begins, DO NOT check-in at the front desk. You will receive your room assignment and key from the Miss Rodeo USA Association upon pageant check-in.
 - Friends and family planning to stay in Oklahoma City
 - IMPORTANT: Your friends and family will be responsible for reserving their hotel room and will not be allowed to stay at the pageant host hotel, the Hilton Garden Inn. We encourage friends and family to stay at one of the following nearby hotels. Please reserve family/friend rooms early!

- Fairfield Inn & Suites by Marriott/Edmond (1 exit south of Host Hotel)
301 Meline Drive, Edmond, OK 73034
405-341-4818
- Hampton Inn OKC/Edmond (1 exit south of Host Hotel)
300 Meline Drive, Edmond, OK 73034
405-844-3037
- Because hotels will be at maximum capacity during the IFR, there are several other quality hotels nearby. We do not have an association with any other hotels, but most have rates ranging from $79 - $139 per night. Many offer suites. Again, we don't get a special rate at hotels not listed above, but you may find comparable alternatives nearby.
- Contact with Contestants
 - Parents, family, friends, committee members and other supporters
 - During the actual pageant, contestants will not be allowed to freely communicate with family/friends. This is primarily for safety reasons. This sometimes catches contestants off guard, so please be prepared to turn in all electronic devices at registration that are on hand, such as phones, ipads and/or laptop computers – or be sure that your family takes possession of these items beforehand.
 - When the contestant group is scheduled to eat at an Edmond/Oklahoma City restaurant, we encourage family and friends to join us. You will not be able to interact with your family, but will be able to say hi or share a smile or wave across the room.
 - During the pageant, contestants will have designated times that they may visit with family and friends. Some of these times will be scheduled and announced at orientation, other opportunities will be if time allows at each given event.
 - Items delivered to the contestants
 - Contestant's family and friends may send cards or flowers during the week. Cards of encouragement are acceptable, but all cards will be read by the chaperones before being delivered to a contestant. Any questionable cards containing criticism or excessive coaching will be delivered to the Head Judge by the chaperones to then determine whether to allow the contestant to receive the card. If not, it will be held until the end of the pageant and the contestant may have the card at that time.
 - IMPORTANT: with the only exception being medical necessity, contestants of the Miss Rodeo USA Pageant will not be allowed ANY DELIVERIES beyond cards and flowers. While items may feel like an emergency situation, such as additional clothing, snacks or convenience items – please do not ask for exceptions to this rule.
 - Emails
 - During the pageant, friends and family can send words of encouragement by submitting emails to missrodeousainfo@gmail.com with the contestant's name in the subject line. They will be printed out each evening and delivered to the contestants. As with cards, the emails will be read and delivery is at the discretion of the Miss Rodeo USA Board of Directors.

- Photography
 - Outside photography, whether professional or personal (camera or phone) is not permitted under any circumstance at the Miss Rodeo USA Pageant. A professional photographer and videographer will be on staff throughout the week to ensure all memories are captured and will have photos/videos for sale.
 - During designated times where family and friends are allowed to communicate with contestants (times/places shared at orientation), the pageant photographer will be available for group photos.

- Scoring
 - At the culmination of the 2021 Miss Rodeo USA pageant, each contestant will receive their scores and any comments provided by the judges via mail no more than 30 days following the pageant.
