

Miss Rodeo USA Clinic Suggested Packing List

Please Bring:

▪ Friday, Classroom

- Casual western attire - No need for hat & banner unless you prefer to wear them - Boots should be comfortable enough to model in, and ok if same boots for horsemanship - Comfortable is always best!

▪ Saturday, Horsemanship

- Riding Boots - Comfortable jeans & top (loose t-shirt or non-revealing tank) - Ball caps or headbands are great for heat/sun purposes.

▪ Sunday, Interviews/Mock Pageant

- Casual western attire OR
- Queen attire if you choose and would like a more complete mock interview with helpful hints and critiques on your queen appearance!
- Again, hat and banner aren't required, only if you desire to wear them.
- All questions you might have about competing in rodeo queen pageants
- A great attitude and a smile are always encouraged!

Optional Items:

- Camera - We will try to have a photographer on staff, but just in case remember those scrapbooks.
- Rodeo Queen clothing for clothing swap throughout the weekend. - ALL items being sold must include your name and price!
- A prepared speech if you would like feedback for an upcoming pageant. - Can be done privately with clinicians when time allows. Please bring a 1 or 2 minute speech.
- Sunscreen for horsemanship day; Will potentially be over 100 degrees!
- Hot rollers and makeup if you'd like to participate in the Queen Hair Tutorial and makeup tutorial. Electrical cord and lighted makeup mirror.
- Horsemanship pattern: If you are preparing for MRUSA, we will be practicing our pattern. However, if you are preparing for another pageant where you know your future horsemanship pattern, feel free to bring a print-out to practice it on our draw horses. An extra print-out for clinicians would be appreciated.
